Rich, I just spoke with Tate Kunkle, and advised him of the results being provided to one of his clients this week. I also asked his assistance as appropriate in getting access for sampling to the two homes you mentioned in your email. He said he would do that. I wanted to double check with you before I gave him your cell number for his clients to contact you on. Should they call your cell, or what direction should we give them as to whom to call? Thanks, Heather
